It Really Does Take a Village

The impact a community makes when needs are known

FOR 16-MONTH-OLD Tomas* and his grandmother Isabella,* life was hard. Isabella's teenage daughter, who had emigrated from El Salvador, had abandoned Tomas, leaving him with Isabella, who was pregnant herself. Isabella lived in a small one-bedroom apartment with her 17-year-old son and four-year-old daughter. She worked at a local restaurant while her partner, Samuel,* worked in Maryland. Isabella needed help. When she reached out to DCHS, Family Services Specialist Areli Zelaya got her case. Zelaya helped Isabella file with the court for custody of Tomas, but then they hit a roadblock. "There were no safety concerns, and Tomas was well cared for," Zelaya recalls, "but the court-appointed guardian ad litem wrote a report to dismiss the petition." The guardian ad litem, a person appointed by the court to represent the best interests of a child in legal actions, was especially concerned about the cramped housing situation, Isabella's pregnancy and literacy issues. As Zelaya worked to find ways to help Isabella improve her chances of gaining custody, social worker Odessa Becker began looking for a resource (foster) family in case Isabella didn't

Collections

The Office of Historic Alexandria maintains and preserves important objects that are acquired by the museums and historic sites. We make these available to the public as often as possible.

Preservation and Conservation

The Office of Historic Alexandria preserves and interprets the past of our community for residents and visitors alike...

but we also are dedicated to protecting, preserving and conserving our historical collections for the education and enjoyment of future generations.

Alexandria Archaeology

Alexandria Archaeology

- Seeks to preserve and study the tangible remains of our community's heritage for public enrichment and enjoyment
- City archaeologists and volunteers work with citizens and developers to locate sites important to the City's past and excavate them when necessary
- Visitors can learn about Alexandria's past at the hands-on Archaeology Museum

This Week in Historic Alexandria

This Week's Events

- May 15 – Alexandria and District of Columbia Needlework Identification Day – The Lyceum
 Do you have an old piece of needlework packed away? Ever wondered where it might have come from or who made it? Let our experts examine your sampler or pictorial! Learn what makes a sampler valuable, hear great tips on care and conservation, and see the treasures from other people's attics. A special focus is identifying 18th- and 19th-century samplers and pictorial embroideries from this geographic area. Your contribution to The Lyceum of $5 per needlework includes full museum admission. Reservations are required. 12:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. 703.838.4994. 201 South Washington Street. www.alexandriahistory.org

- May 16 – Soldier-Led Walking Tours – Fort Ward Museum & Historic Site
 A Union soldier in period uniform will lead two walking tours of Fort Ward. The hour-long tour will introduce visitors to the history of the Defenses of Washington, the building and role of Fort Ward, 19th-century fortification engineering, and the troops who were stationed in this area during the Civil War. Walking shoes and weather-appropriate clothing recommended. Tours begin at 10 a.m. and at 2 p.m. Free! 703.838.4848. 4301 West Braddock Road. www.fortward.org

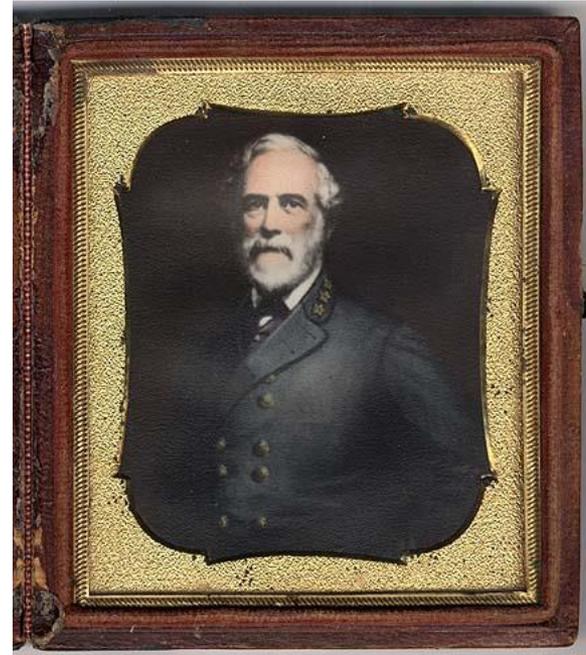

This Week in Alexandria History

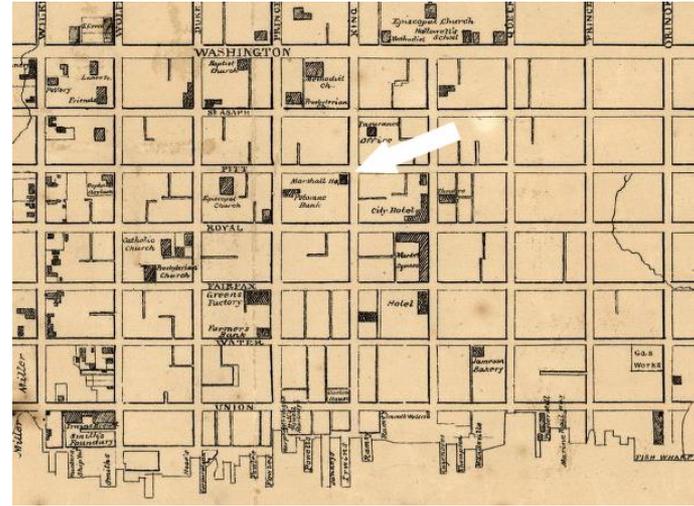

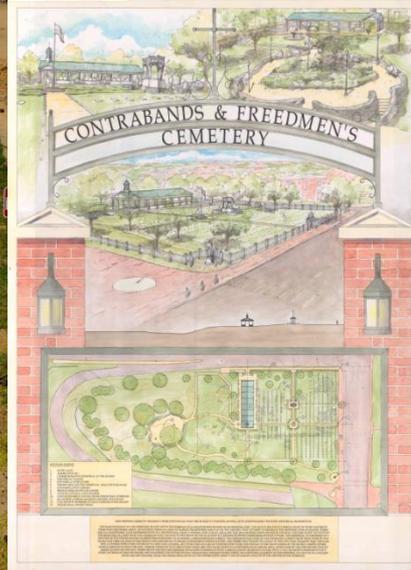

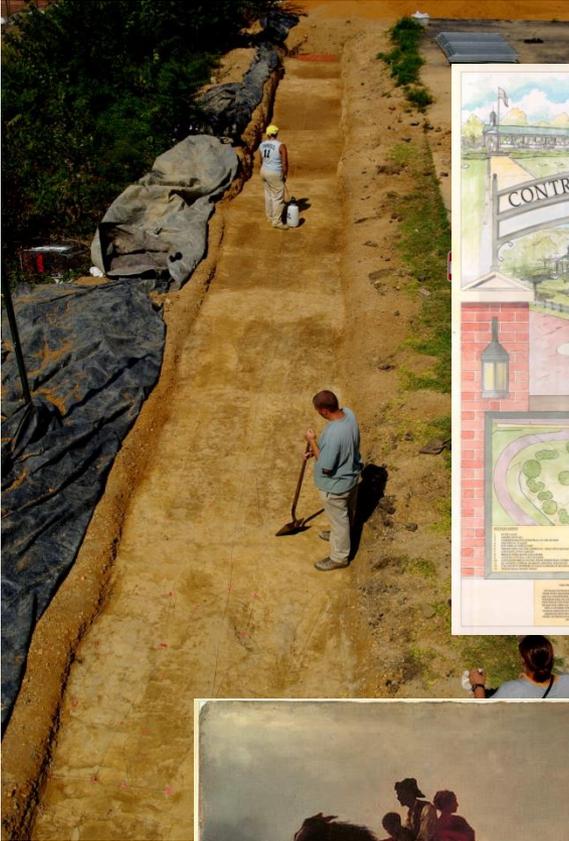

On May 12, 1909, a large fire broke out at Smoot Lumber at Union and Cameron streets. Originating at the planing mill near Lee Street, the fire caused an estimated $500,000 in damage. Firefighters drafted water from the Potomac River to help put out the blaze.

How you can join us!

- Alexandria Archaeological Commission – Provides guidance on cultural resource management.
- Alexandria Historical Restoration & Preservation Commission – accepts open space and interior and façade easements in historic districts. There are now 60 easements on properties in Alexandria. This Commission is particularly interested in preservation of Open Space in Old & Historic District although their legal mandate allows for acceptance of easements throughout the City. Commission members are appointed by the State and the City.

Boards & Commissions

How you can join us!

- Historic Alexandria Resources Commission – generally advises Council on a wide variety of historical subjects.
- Public Records Advisory Commission – advises staff and Council on records management and archival collections. An excellent group of citizens who are involved in records management at the Federal level, often have significant important advice for staff.
- Alexandria Convention and Visitors Association – ex officio member
- Boards of Architectural Review – staff prepare comments for archeological and historical significance.

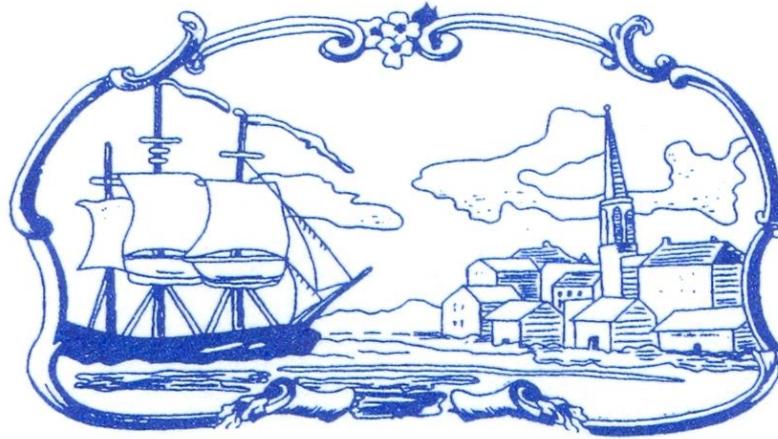

Alexandria City Council Strategic Plan

This 2010 City Council Strategic Plan has been developed in collaboration and in partnership with the Alexandria community. It is a carefully planned effort to advance Alexandria toward the future we envision for our community. As we move forward to implement the direction offered by the Strategic Plan, the Alexandria City Council affirms its commitment to the Plan's objectives and initiatives. Consequently, Council directs that City staff consider the Strategic Plan when developing, implementing or reviewing the delivery of public services, and in presenting requests for fiscal resources.
