- A fictitious name is a name that a person (individual or business entity) uses instead of the person's true name, usually in the course of transacting or offering to transact business. It is sometimes referred to as an "assumed name" or "trade name," and it is often identified after a person's true name with the abbreviation "t/a" ("trading as"), "dba" ("doing business as"), or "aka" ("also known as").
- No person may conduct or transact business in Virginia under an assumed or fictitious name unless the person files a certificate of assumed or fictitious name in the Office of the Clerk of the Commission.
- No person may use an assumed or fictitious name in the conduct of the person's business to intentionally misrepresent the geographic origin or location of the person.
